

Fabric Roll Packing

Standard Features

- Packing by stretch film
- Auto wrapping of rolls
- Film tension programmable
- No of cycles programmable
- Head speed programmable

Optionals

- Pneumatic Ejection

Specifications :

|                  |                                                                               |
|------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Machine          | : Packing                                                                     |
| Make             | : Yash                                                                        |
| Model            | : Packomat - RSTP                                                             |
| Industrial Field | : All Textiles                                                                |
| Roll Width       | : 1350 - 1800 mm                                                              |
| Roll Diameter    | : 600 - 1500 mm                                                               |
| Roll Weight      | : 1000 kg                                                                     |
| Packing Capacity | : 20 - 30 Roll / Hour                                                         |
| Panel            | : IP55                                                                        |
| Input Supply     | : 440V AC. 3 Phase + Neutral & Earth Wire, 50 Hz.# Can Be Client Specific |
| Certification    | : CE Marking                                                                  |

Packomat - RSTP
Textiles - All

Radial Wrapping

